

INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACH TO STUDY OF LANGUAGE AND SOCIETY 2

Theoretical concepts and research methods acquired during the Interdisciplinary approach to study of language and society 1 are further explored within an inter- and transdisciplinary framework of study of language and society through mentorship tailored toward individualized students' academic needs and interests (students are encouraged to chose research topics related to their Ph.D. research).