

INTRODUCTION TO CATALAN CULTURE I

This course provides an introduction to the culture of the Catalan-speaking areas. The course provides an overview of the field of Catalan Studies through an examination of Catalan literature, sociolinguistics, history, geography and arts (painting, film, architecture, music, etc.). In this course, students examine Catalan culture in its social, political, and historical context through short critical papers and class discussion.